WILSON CERTAIN AGREEMENTS CAN BE REACHED SOON

Believes Preliminary Conferences Will Clear Up Differences

WORKS OUT PLANS BUT KEEPS HIS OWN COUNSEL

Keeps in Close Touch With Affairs at Home By Wireless

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Monday, Dec. 16.—After the conference he has had in Paris and the personal examination he has made into the situation here, President Wilson has come to understand fully why the peace conference cannot get under way before the first of the year. The mere physical proposition of getting the American mission to the conference settled in its offices is a tremendous job. It might almost be compared to the task of shifting the contents of a building housing one of the great emergency war organizations in America and setting it up in a new place.

President Wilson is said to be the American people's front and his review of them in Paris that is planned will be entirely out of the way by the first of the year. Meanwhile the informal conferences which mean so much and decide so much in England and the ground work for such a task as is before the peace conference will continue to make progress. The president is seeking to get acquainted with the men with whom he is to deal so that he may discuss with the greatest freedom the problems arising and develop the value of the personal equation.

From the president's point of view, it is indicated, there are plain things to be said, and he is not to be seen and avoid antagonisms, because, notwithstanding all points to be cleared up, and upon which wide divergences of opinion have been expressed as representing public opinion in England and France, the president is confident that an acceptable agreement will be reached before the peace conference adjourns.

It is recalled that diplomatic policy shows that the conference of this kind is unusually, is not invariably, assembled without definite programs to work with and such a conference probably never accomplishes precisely down to the letter what it is expected of.

What the president is doing is to get the Americans familiar with the history of diplomacy who are attending this conference, are convinced that it will be no exception to the rule.

While things are shaping up for the great gathering President Wilson is evidently working out his own plans and for the most part keeping his own counsel. He was exceedingly glib in his visit to Premier Clemenceau which was largely a personal affair. The president told the premier some of his best anecdotes and it is said the French minister formed a high opinion of the president's sense of humor.

President Wilson's health continues good. He has practically shaken off the cold which followed him to Europe. With Mrs. Wilson and Rear Admiral Cary F. Grayson, arrived here today, he probably will take a turn on the golf links at Versailles the first pleasant morning that comes along and on which he has not been too busy engaged with his strengthening.

Keeping in the closest touch with affairs in the United States through advice from the White House, from members of the cabinet and the heads of some of the special war bureaus upon whom it is depending for accurate information.

So far as known the president has not yet selected a director general of railroads, and Director McAdoo may hold over until the president's return.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Rome, Dec. 17.—Changes have been made in the personnel of the Italian delegation to the peace conference, which was unofficially announced recently, according to the Tribuna. That newspaper says that the representatives of this country at Versailles will be Vittorio Orlando, premier; Baron Sidney Sonnino, foreign minister; Francesco Saverio Nitti, minister of the treasury; Leonida Bissolati, minister of the interior; and the reform socialist and minister of military aid and war pensions; General Armando Diaz, commander-in-chief of the Italian armies, and Vice Admiral Paolo Thaon di Revel, former chief of the naval staff.

B. & O. EMPLOYE KILLED BY TRAIN

Theodore Craig Steps In Front of Freight Train as He Avoids Passenger.

Theodore L. Craig, colored aged 75, and an employee of the B. & O. was instantly killed this morning when he stepped out in front of a passenger train directly in front of a freight train. Craig was on his way to work and left the city car at the Pennsylvania crossing in East Main street and started down the Pennsylvania tracks when the train hit him. He is survived by his wife and two daughters and one son. Mrs. Levia Craig of Detroit, Winifred and Naomi Craig of the home in Buckingham street. The body was removed to Criss Brothers establishment and prepared for burial.

MAIL PLANES WILL START REGULAR TRIPS

(Associated Press Telegram.) Cleveland, Dec. 17.—The two mail planes which will begin a regular service tomorrow morning from Cleveland and Chicago, arrived here today at 11:30 a. m. The two machines in charge of Pilots Everette and Davidson, left Belmont, Pa., at 9:10 a. m. and their flying time over the course of 205 miles was two hours and twenty minutes.

The machines which will take the New York-Cleveland leg of the aerial mail are scheduled to reach here tomorrow morning.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Dexter, Mo., Dec. 17.—Three army airplanes with six aviators flying from Houston, Texas, to Detroit, Mich., arrived here at 11:30 a. m., all in good condition.

CARDINAL ATTENDS PEACE SERVICES

TORPEDO BOATS SAIL FOR HOME

Great Crowds of English Throng Shore at Queens-town to Bid Yankee Fleet Farewell.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Queenstown, Monday, Dec. 16.—Great crowds thronged the shore here today to bid farewell to the fleet of 22 American torpedo boats which sailed for home. The crews of ships in the harbor waved flags and cheered the Americans as they steamed slowly out of the harbor.

It was a pretty picture that was presented when the American warships moved from their anchorage. The Stevens, the senior ship of the squadron, led the way, followed by the Jenkins, Balch, Cassin, Terry, Paulding, Lamson, Caldwell, Conyngham, McCall, Sterrett and Trippe.

The destroyers will go first to the Azores, where they will join the tender ship Dixie, which sailed yesterday. After a short stay at the Azores they will complete their voyage to America.

Rear Admiral Thomas B. Howard still has several destroyers here and it is reported that they, with the guard ship, Melville, will leave by December 22. Other destroyers of the American navy are attached to this base, but they are cruising in different parts of the seas surrounding Great Britain or are in French waters.

ITALY CHANGES PEACE DELEGATES

(Associated Press Telegram.) Rome, Dec. 17.—Changes have been made in the personnel of the Italian delegation to the peace conference, which was unofficially announced recently, according to the Tribuna. That newspaper says that the representatives of this country at Versailles will be Vittorio Orlando, premier; Baron Sidney Sonnino, foreign minister; Francesco Saverio Nitti, minister of the treasury; Leonida Bissolati, minister of the interior; and the reform socialist and minister of military aid and war pensions; General Armando Diaz, commander-in-chief of the Italian armies, and Vice Admiral Paolo Thaon di Revel, former chief of the naval staff.

WILSON ON VISIT TO VERSAILLES

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Monday, Dec. 16.—President Wilson's visit to Versailles today was unannounced and informal. Mr. Wilson's idea was to inspect the golf course, which on advice of Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, he will probably visit as often as time permits. The driver, who was unacquainted with the route, missed the golf course and Mr. Wilson saw only the palace, returning to Paris in time for luncheon.

Tomorrow night the president will attend the reception to be given by Ambassador Sharp of the American embassy. King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena of Italy will be received at the Murat residence between 5 and 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

Today's reception was the last of the affairs arranged wholly by the French government. Hereafter all Mr. Wilson's movements will be arranged for by his personal staff. His conference with Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain is still indefinite as to time, but it is not probable that it will occur before the end of this week or the beginning of next.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Reno, Dec. 17.—When the midnight air struck last night Nevada went dry. There appeared to be little unusual demonstration in Reno. Cabarets and bars were well filled to the closing hour.

THREE FACTIONS SEEK SUPREMACY IN NEW GERMANY

Spartacus Group Is Hun Equivalent of Russian Bolsheviks

SCHEIDEMAN IS LEADER OF SOCIAL DEMOCRATS

Hugo Hasse Leads Independent Socialists, Favoring Constitutional

(Associated Press Correspondence.) London, Dec. 16.—Some light on the muddled political situation in Germany may be gained by analysis of the revolutionary forces now at work.

There are three distinct parties contesting for supremacy, the social democrats, the independent socialists, and the Spartacus or Bolshevik group.

The social democrats, led by the old Scheidemann, have been the mainstay of the war effort. Through independent work they worked hand in hand with the so-called middle class, non-socialist parties. When the revolution occurred they wished to continue this cooperation and establish a coalition government representing the old reichstag coalition majority. They may be called the "extreme right" or conservative element of the revolutionary movement.

But owing to the opposition their program encountered a compromise which was made with their chief rival, the independent socialists, led by Hugo Hasse, George Ledebour and Carl Kautsky. The independent socialists oppose cooperation with non-socialists but they consented in their agreement with the social democrats to make the establishment of a socialist state independent upon a coalition with the majority of the people. Like the social democrats, they are in favor of the constitutional procedure. They may be termed the "center" party.

The extreme left is the mysterious Spartacus group, formed in the fall of 1918. It keeps its name from anonymous political letters, signed "Spartacus," which were sent out by Karl Liebknecht for the personal instruction of the social democrats. The Spartacus group is to be an end to the capitalist system. Liebknecht and his other leaders are said to be trying to lead the Spartacus group to the proletariat by force of arms.

The group is the German equivalent of the Russian Bolsheviks.

WETS' PETITION FOR REFERENDUM

Three Ordinances Passed by Council are Held in Abeyance by Request for Election

Three petitions for a referendum on the three ordinances recently passed by the city council were filed yesterday afternoon with the clerk, A. Nelson Dodd, by a committee of five men, D. L. Murphy, Frank S. Dixon, Philip Gerlach, Henry Kaiser and E. O. Sattler.

The petitions contained 1682, 1680 and 1702 names of voters and their filing prevents the three ordinances from going into effect tomorrow, calling for an election on the same at the next regular election, which is set for November 4, 1919.

The ordinances covered in the petition provide for the closing of saloons at 10 o'clock at night, preventing the sale of liquor after that hour; the prohibition of the sale of packages or bottled goods by saloonkeepers unless delivered; and the prohibition of the sale of beer by saloonkeepers unless delivered.

In order to secure their passage it would be necessary to file petitions asking for a special election and signatures of 20 per cent of the voters at the last municipal election would be necessary. The cost of such an election would be between $1100 and $1200. The saloons will go out of business May 27, the state having voted dry.

VATICAN SECRETARY TO ARRANGE VISIT TO POPE

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Dec. 17.—Monsieur Cerretti, papal under secretary of state, who is in Paris on his way to the United States to participate in the celebration of Cardinal Gibbons, will call on Colonel E. M. House today to make arrangements to be received by President Wilson. He will present the president with an autograph letter from Pope Benedict and will discuss arrangements for the visit of the president to the pope during the president's stay in Rome.

GERMANS STILL PRACTICE CRUELITIES

(Associated Press Telegram.) Zurich, Dec. 17.—(Havas)—German soldiers at Cracow are reported to have fired upon Russian prisoners who refused to work, killing six and wounding seven, according to the Stuttgart Telegraph. It is stated that the incident occurred since the signing of the armistice between the allies and Germany.

COUNCIL BOOSTS SALARIES OF FIRE AND POLICE DEPT. $15 MONTHLY

Fire Chief Now Draws $240 Year More Than Mayor—City Solicitor Reports on Water Works Suit and Main Street Paving

Council met in regular session last evening and all members present and (transacted) considerable business, chief of which was granting a raise in salaries to all members of the fire and police departments of the sum of $15 per month, making Chief Charles Clausen's salary $145 per month or $20 per month more than the salary received by the mayor. Police Chief Sheridan will receive $140 per month or $15 per month more than the mayor's salary.

The finance committee, to whom the department of the city council has referred the ordinance as drawn grants to the Newark Telephone company an increase of the rates as paid at present, the increase over the old ordinance being paid into the hands of a trustee for final distribution by the courts.

The mayor's monthly report showed that he had collected in fines the sum of $230.

The report of City Solicitor H. C. Ashcraft approved the ordinance granting an increase of salary to the department of the city council, and also reported on the testimony in the suit of the American Bottle company against the city, the verdict of $6,774.44 secured by the defendant was inadequate, in his opinion, which he stated that he learned while there that the Old Electric Railway Corporation in the hands of the council.

Also reported on a recent trip to Washington in the interest of securing priority orders for street improvements, in which he stated that he learned while there that the Old Electric Railway Corporation in the hands of the council.

YOUTHS DEMAND PART IN GOVT.

Berlin Boys and Girls, Led by 17-Year-Old Youth Threaten "Terrible Consequences"

(Associated Press Telegram.) Berlin, Monday, Dec. 16.—Several hundred boys and girls paraded through the streets of the city today on their way to the reichstag building where the soldiers' and workers' congress is being held. They demand among other things, votes for persons 18 years of age, the abolition of corporal punishment in schools, and the participation by children in the administration of the government and saloons. The marchers carried red flags and incendiary placards.

A 17-year-old lad made an address warning the executive committee of "terrible consequences" if the juvenile program was not carried out. The chairman of the executive committee declared his sympathy with the children's demands. Later the procession gathered in the square in front of the reichstag building where youthful orators demanded the removal of Premier Ebert and Philipp Scheidemann from office; opposing the convening of the national assembly and threatened a juvenile strike throughout Germany if their demands were not immediately accepted.

UNCONCERNED AS TO KAISER'S FATE

New Government Desires Only to Fix Guilt for Outbreak of War and Expose Wilhelm.

(Associated Press Telegram.) London, Dec. 17.—British Wireless Service—Friedrich Ebert, socialist premier of Germany, declared in an interview yesterday that he did not know of any legal method by which William Hohenzollern's surrender could be forced.

"I cannot think of any provision in law upon which the former emperor should have to give up his throne," he said. "But that is not a question which closely concerns us. We have separated ourselves from him and now desire only that guilt for the outbreak of the war should be finally fixed in order that it may be exposed once for all."

Asked to give his view of the future, Ebert replied:

"I am optimistic, but you must remember that our influence upon the course of events is limited. We cannot create bread for the German people. If the nation is allowed to starve, then the inevitable will follow. That a nation can be brought to a desperate pass and burst through all restraints has been shown by the experience of the past year. Our old system came to the ground as a result of Russian events which it itself provoked. It is poor consolation, however, that, in falling, one draws one's enemies to the ground. To us any other solution would be preferable."

FRENCH PEOPLE ARE SOLID FOR WILSON

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Monday, Dec. 16.—President Wilson has been deeply impressed by the magnificent reception given him in Paris, the more so that assurances are declared to have come to him from what was regarded as a dependable source that the French people as a whole are sincere in their acceptance of his principles and will uphold them.

YOUNG TURKS RESIST ALLIES

(Associated Press Telegram.) Athens, Dec. 17.—The situation in Smyrna is extremely critical, according to newspaper dispatches from Mititene. Young Turk officials have posted armed bands at various places about the town and these have been bombed by the allied fleets.

PROMPT PASSAGE OF REVENUE BILL URGED IN SENATE

Penrose Declares Bill Was Drafted After Careful Investigation

OPPOSE HEAVY INCOME TAX FEATURE OF LAW

Are Entitled to Support Only as War Measure He Declares

(Associated Press Telegram.) Washington, Dec. 17.—Prompt passage of the war revenue bill was urged in the senate today by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, senior Republican member of the finance committee. Senator Penrose gave his views when the senate reached the income tax section which provides for reduction of taxes from 1919 to 1920, and abolishing war excess profits taxes and substitution of a new system of flat income taxes.

"It is because the bill is essentially a war measure," he said, "that I am willing to support it. It is through desisting from the special 1920 provisions. It has received more careful thought by far than any previous internal revenue measure in this country. It is more clearly and consistently drafted and supplied with wiser administrative provisions than any other measure."

"I cannot disguise the fact that I feel anxious as to the best mode of the public of the attempt to apply such higher rates of income and profits taxes as are provided. I am also convinced that the great body of intelligent and patriotic business men and tax payers throughout the country are willing to accept these rates and desire the measure passed."

The bill's rates, Senator Penrose said, reach the "limit of endurance," and only "are entitled to support as a war emergency." He added that such reductions as government requirements shrink during demobilization and reconstruction, are certain in the future.

Opposing the proposed 1920 rates, Senator Penrose said it is impossible now to forecast the government's needs and industrial conditions in 1920 and declared that "as a continuing levy anything like the present rates would be a disaster."

He suggested that the bill's plan of raising one-third of the government's revenue by increasing taxes and two-thirds by bonds is excessive. Pointing out that England has raised during the war but 22 per cent by taxes and France only 14 per cent, he added:

"It is evident therefore that the proportion of taxes to loans in the United States is over one-third greater as compared with England and twice as large as compared to France."

KAISER'S FATE NOT CASE FOR JURISTS

Former British Cabinet Minister Declares Wilhelm and Cohorts Must Be Surrendered to Governments

(Associated Press Telegram.) London, Dec. 17.—(Havas)—General Leconte, commanding the 330th corps of the French army, entered Wiesbaden yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The troops were reviewed from the steps of the city hall, opposite the statue of former Emperor William.

EPIDEMIC HERE STILL IMPROVES

Only 18 Flu Cases Reported Up to Noon Tuesday—Rules are Being Obeyed

The flu condition in the city shows a tendency to continue to improve. Today's report shows 18 cases, with five physicians who had not made their report up to noon.

There seems to be a general inclination to obey the restrictions imposed by the board of health, and the cooperation will continue in an endeavor to wipe out the epidemic.

FRENCH WOMEN DEMAND VOTES

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Dec. 17.—(Havas)—Several groups of French women, suffrage advocates, have joined in issuing a manifesto demanding that the political rights of women be recognized by the government before the next election.

FRENCH HOTELS BAR HUN GUESTS

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Dec. 17.—(Havas)—The general syndicate of French hotels announced that it has decided that for 10 years it will not receive a native enemy country as an employee or customer. This decision will be transmitted to organizations of hotel men in all the allied countries.

KING DRINKS WINE AND SEES SHOW

(Associated Press Telegram.) London, Dec. 10.—Correspondence of the Associated Press—Until armistice week King George had not been inside a theater since the outbreak of the war and had not partaken of intoxicants since 1915. On the night of the signing of the armistice he had champagne with his dinner, and after pursuing a long list of theatrical attractions he selected something lively—one of the most popular "girl" shows, which he seemed to enjoy.

(Associated Press Telegram.) London, Monday, Dec. 16.—The Italian embassy here stated that the report from Laibach to the effect that an American squadron has arrived at Pola was unfounded.

BRENNAN LOSES KIT IN EXPLOSION

Flash of Powder Burns Tent and Belongings But He Escapes Unhurt—An Interesting Letter.

Telling of many interesting incidents befalling the members of Battery B, of the 324th H. F. A., before and after the armistice was signed. Private George J. Brennan has written an interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. J. C. Brennan of North Fifth street.

In it he says: "Tuesday, Nov. 5, I thought I would drop you a line tonight while I had the time and a candle to see by. I received your letter of October 5, just about a week ago while we were at a rest camp for two days. We left the Verdun front, where we were for about a month, and went back about 20 miles to a rest camp, where we rested. Then we got orders to pack up and move. We were three days on the road, going to where we are now in a new line, about 10 to 15 kilometers.

"We are not with the 83rd division any more, as that division has been split up and is no more. We have been attached to three different divisions since coming up to the front.

"We have seen some historic things up here, such as the Meuse river, which is as clear as crystal, and which is said to have once flowed red, as you will probably remember reading a few years back. I saw Dead Man's Hill, too. This country around the front where they have been fighting for the past four years is covered with shell-holes and no trace at all to speak of. We didn't go through Verdun, but passed close around it. We have been in position three times so far, and may never go in another, if all that peace talk is true, which it is not. We don't get much fresh news only at times, when a radio comes in, as we have a wireless station with the regiment. We don't get any fresh newspapers.

"This reserve business is a little better than a rest camp. As we geared up, the guns and cannons yesterday we didn't have much to do today, so I scouted around the country near by, and picked up souvenirs—some more to be sure, but I ran across about seven tanks, both French and American. The French tanks are smaller and carry a one-pounder and a machine gun, while the American carry a 75-mm. gun and three machine guns. One of the American tanks was hit directly and burned out inside. I found an automatic in it, but of course it won't work.

"While north of Verdun I saw an American aviator bring down an Hun plane with two Huns in it. It was just after dinner and he dove down and got him by surprise. It was a little over a mile from us. Within a few days after the plane was torn all to pieces by souvenir hunters, of which I was one. I got some of the cloth from the wings and part of the windshield. I will enclose a piece of the wing.

"While coming back to the rest camp, a German plane dropped some papers, when we were a few miles out of Verdun. It says that 'The new German democratic government offers peace.' I chased through a thicket and managed to get one, which you can read for yourself. That was October 29th. The other plane that was brought down also had some literature in it, which said, 'Why are we still fighting?' They want to blame it on the Americans now, as they want peace pretty badly now, and can't get it as easily as they thought.

"We see lots of air battles when the weather is clear and warmed up a bit. But then, according to that, we wouldn't see many. When we first pulled in here, there was a balloon company here, but had to move up as the Americans have been pushing back the Huns so fast. Every time a Hun plane comes over at night, all lights must be out or well hidden, for if they saw a light they would either bomb us or shoot with machine guns.

"Well, here it is the 13th, and I haven't mailed your letter yet. We moved forward the night I wrote the first part and I have been carrying it around ever since. We also moved again after that to this position, where he have fired the last shot, hope. I suppose you have heard the good news by this time. We will probably get to see some different country now, and in the day time.

"We fired our last shots the morning that the armistice was signed. It was the 11th month, 11th day, and 11th hour. The French soldiers around here were more joyful than we, but then they have been in the fight for four years over here for us. At night everywhere about us, signal rockets and flares are going up. We are also allowed to have open fires and lights at night now. While coming to this position we were bombed by aeroplanes and shelled as we pulled in. We are now temporarily located in a woods. There is a row of guns on one side of the road but we didn't stop to fix them up much at first. I have a pretty good shack fixed up now. Wood floor and tar paper on top, from a German barrack, with my shelter half on one side and front. There is a German trench near here where tools were dropped and left unfinished.

"The Germans put up some of their powder in silk bags. I will enclose one of them. They run up to six. They left a lot of ammunition around here.

"Since we don't fire any more we have a new schedule and get up at 6 and are busy until 4:15 drilling, etc., and cleaning up guns. It gets dark at 4:30 or a little later and as candles are very rare we don't get much time to write. The night I started this letter we were awakened at 10:30 to move forward. My bedmate accidentally set a couple bundles of powder on fire and burned up our tent and most of our things.

"A fellow hasn't much time or water to even wash his face and hands, much less write. I haven't had a bath or change of underwear for over a month now. I need a new suit now and will get one shortly.

"We don't expect to get to the states for three months or more. I may stay awhile longer if they offer a good proposition as I hear they will sign you up for 11 months at $150 and expenses after the war is over."

Her Modest Ambition. Romantic Myrtle—O, don't you just long to be a bride and live in a vine-clad cot?

I don't know, replied the summer girl. But go on with the course of instruction.—Kansas City Journal.

REFLECTED GLORY.

The man who stayed at home finds his heart swelling with pride as he thinks what our people have done in the war. As we read of those fearless exploits of our boys in the Argonne, how grand it does seem to be an American. Many of us think so much along this line that we almost feel that we have done these things ourselves.

As a matter of fact most of us have not done much. Those of us who did not go, or send our own boys, simply stayed at home and underwent minor discomforts. We made rather trifling sacrifices, but we haven't done anything very big, nor anything indicating great heroism.

There is a great tendency to take on reflected glory and assume credit for it and substitute it for doing things ourselves.

You see that in people interested in sports. They will get out and yell for a ball team, and get just as much satisfaction rooting for the nine as if they had played the game and won the victory themselves. It is of course a fine thing to give this loyal support to any home interest. But at the same time it is not the same thing as doing something your self to be proud of.

Let us try from this time forth not to depend for our feelings of pride merely on things that our neighbors and our representatives have done, but to try to do things ourselves worthy of the American name.

We were not called upon to cut lines of barbed wire in the deadly Argonne. But we are asked to take up year by year the sometimes onerous tasks of our civic life and to do things for the public welfare. Let us then be more worthy of the splendid boys we have sent out to win the war, and try to do a little something in the home life of Newark that will make some little return for what has been given us.

Some people are opposed to cutting down young evergreens for Christmas trees. But anyway those that are out and sold now aren't burned up by careless campers after waiting 49 years from now.

A TRIUMPH OF TEAM WORK.

Reports of friction between our armed forces and those of our allies seem to be greatly exaggerated. At any rate a degree of harmony and team work was manifested never before seen in a condition of nature. It is wonderful when you consider how these forces and these nations differed in their interests, habits, and ideas. This unity was a principal cause of the great victory. It took wonderfully good management to unify all these various forces into a harmonious whole.

This should be a lesson to us in all our civic life here in Newark. It shows that tremendous things can be accomplished when people forget their differences and work together for community ends. When it comes to politics of course we all have our different views, which it is our privilege to express. But in civic life there are a thousand interests where we should all think about alike, and where we should all pull together in team work.

Aunt Caline says—Hava Hart has been up to Newark on a little visit an' the vurry day she went Had, which is her husband, let a cheer rock back again the winder an' broke out a pair o' glass. Then it turned kind o' raw an' 'began to drizzle rain in the nite an' 'began some adeared o' ketchin' new-mony Had got up an' reed in the burro drawer to sit someidin' to keep out the wind. Is Woman Losing Her Gentleness?
We were talking to the young lady at the telephone exchange the while we were perfectly crazy about the telephone as a decoration, yet we possessed one of those sordid souls that can't help regarding everything from the standpoint of usefulness, and we were going on in our rambling way, gradually working up courage to report the trouble, when she fixed us with a glittering eye and sternly inquired, "What's your number?" and as we timidly told her we had a feeling that we were revealing the location of our padded cell and all our doubts about woman's efficiency in business are now dissipated.

Why Sing, Judd?

Arise and sing:

—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

We may be sad.
But, Oh, gee whiz!
Not sad as he
Who hears us is.

The Neighbor Woman.
We sometimes wish that that one of the neighbor women with whom we feel free to discuss anything at all, lived next door to us. Instead of a little farther down the street, inasmuch as, if the new so-called lace curtains at our chamber window have been looped back to keep them from blowing over all creation, as we are officially informed they must be, we'd rather have her watch us at our setting-up exercises in the morning than one with whom we do not feel quite so half-fellow well met, as one might say.—Ohio State Journal.

Still, an acquaintance begun under such pleasant and informal conditions may speedily ripen into a delightful intimacy in which absolutely nothing may be barred from discussion, and even settling-up exercises may be accomplished with added vivacity.

Did You Know

That meerschaum is a mineral existing in many parts of the world? From its having been found on the seashore it was thought to be the petrified foam of the sea, which is the meaning of its name. It is found in various places in Europe and in Asia it occurs abundantly just below the soil in the alluvial beds in Natchez. In the rocks in this same district it is mined so extensively as to give employment to large numbers of men. Meerschaum is composed of silica, magnesia and water and is used principally for the manufacture of tobacco pipes.

Christmas 1918.

I am wondering now if my friends will allow
A word from a fellow like me.
Just a bit of advice which I think will be nice.

Or at least it is so meant to be.
"Have you been to the stores, it's like going to wars."
To meet in some sweet meats and toys.
And buy cards by the dozen, for uncle, aunt, cousin

With expressions of Christmas time joys!"

If it's true you've been dropping behind with your shopping.
I'd advise you at once to begin.
And get it done early e'er the crowds hurry by.

Jam the aisles till you cannot look in from the tree at the Santa Claus club.

If you buy while the buying is good.
And then on the day when the rabble holds sway,
You can watch them and grin and saw wood.

There is also one thing to your notice I'd bring.
It's the truth I would say, altogether.
Good St. Nick won't be here I very much fear

Unless there's a change in the weather.
But there's no need to worry or get in a hurry.
For he's chosen an excellent sub.

And all good little boys, also girls will get toys
From the tree at the Santa Claus club.

For the grown ups like me and all others that be
Send a gift that is chosen with care.
With a word of good cheer, between friends far or near.

Just to show that the spirit is there.
But far better 'twould be if our duty we'd see
To cut out the glamor and dress.

And let every one say, to his friends Christmas day
I have joined our great country's Red Cross.

THE NAVY'S GREAT WORK.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Secretary Daniels' annual report, dealing with the operations of the navy during the great war, covers such a multiplicity of subjects that a perusal of it in full is requisite in order to secure some conception of the magnificent work of our sea fighters. Even at that, as he points out, the ground is only partially covered, for the time has not yet come for a full recital of the many stirring deeds, the patient labors of construction, the unparalleled expansion, the loyal cooperation with our Allies, the warfare on submarines, the protection of convoys and the innumerable other branches of activity that have added a new glory to American history. The secretary pays an especially eloquent tribute to the valor of the marines, who in the fighting about Chateau Thierry and in Belleau Wood played so large a part in checking the German advance toward Paris. The tremendous losses suffered by this gallant organization, nearly half of the 8,000 men engaged being either killed or severely wounded, show the fierce character of the fighting.

The American people have always had a strong affection for their navy, from the Revolutionary days of John Paul Jones down to the present time, and it will be a great pleasure to them to know that it has attained a magnitude—nearly 500,000 men and 2,000 vessels—and an efficiency hitherto undreamed of. It was the appearance of our destroyers in British waters on May 4, 1917, that marked the turn of the tide in the German submarine warfare, and it was the adoption of the convoy system, made possible by our warships, that enabled the United States to send in safety to our Allies such enormous quantities of food and supplies and such great numbers of American soldiers. Nearly a million of these were transported in American vessels.

Such operations as these, carried out on a gigantic scale, and with a degree of competency hitherto unknown in our annals, shed a new lustre on the navy and must be a matter of especial pride and satisfaction to Secretary Daniels. For some unknown reason that gentleman was a favorite target for all the snarling curs who yelped for our government previous to the war. Despite the great work he had done in building up the navy and improving its personnel, he was unmercifully lampooned and his labors misrepresented. The splendid record of his department is now his vindication and justifies the faith placed in him by his official chief and his supporters. In carrying through his great labors to such a successful conclusion Secretary Daniels has had the benefit of an unusually brilliant group of naval officers selected solely on the basis of fitness. Men of the type of Admiral Sims and Admiral Benson have been towers of strength to him. With their civilian head they have brought the navy to a pinnacle of fame and usefulness that would have seemed impossible 20 months ago.

Alimony Not Paid.
In common pleas court the case of Neva Bishop vs. Arthur Bishop was heard to the court. Some weeks since the court made an order that the defendant pay the sum of $15 per week as temporary alimony, and ordered the defendant to pay said amount into court for plaintiff's benefit. Plaintiff says that no payments have been made, and defendant was cited to appear in court and show cause why he should not be imprisoned for contempt for the non-payment of the alimony. Defendant says that he is unable to pay the amount. "It is beyond his ability to pay," but says he is willing to pay what he can. The court, after hearing the statement of counsel and the parties took the matter under advisement.

NEW DOG TAG PLAN BRINGS IN MORE MONEY

The new dog tags and licenses for 1919 are now being issued by County Auditor Fred S. Wilson, and all owners of canines should see to it at once that they are properly tagged before January 1, 1919, or the new sheriff-tobe, E. A. Eryan, may take them up and impound them, or else have them executed.

That the new dog tag has proven successful has been demonstrated in this county. Under the old system of returning dogs for taxation $4100 was collected in 1917. During the past year a total of $6,755.25 was collected. Of this sum animal claims paid during the year amounted to $4,148.66, and other expenses paid from the fund were $222.22.

Out of the dog fund for this year the board of education was given $1000 and the humane society $800, and there is a reserve of $1000, and there still remains a surplus in the fund.

All applications by mail for tags and licenses should be accompanied by postage, otherwise no attention can be paid to it, and it will be held until postage is forwarded. Only 12 days remain in which to secure the same. If you would protect your dog and the matter should be attended to at once.

PLAN ORGANIZATION OF WOMEN'S MOTOR CORPS

The meeting scheduled for this afternoon of young women interested in the forming of a motor corps organization has been indefinitely postponed on account of the board of health ban. The corps will be organized as soon as the ban is lifted.

Mrs. George M. Fenberg, who is interested in the movement, stated today that about 15 women had declared their intention of becoming identified with the corps, the purpose of which is to carry every sick and wounded soldier about the city, take them to meetings and move them from one place to another, whenever necessary as well as to do any work which the Red Cross may need done.

The corps also will furnish cars for physicians in emergencies and assist them in any work in the movement of patients when ambulances cannot be secured. Each woman is pledged to give a day a week to the work.

OVERSEAS SOLDIERS TO RETURN IN OWN UNITS

The local draft board has received a communication from the state board relative to inquiries which are being made and requests for the speedy return of soldiers now serving overseas.

The board quotes the adjutant general of America as stating that as the military situation improves that a speedy return of the men overseas will be made, and that the war department cannot entertain any requests for the discharge or return of individual soldiers overseas.

The communication from the state board also repeats the information that as soon as conditions permit the bodies of all soldiers who died overseas will be returned to this country.

THREE WIVES ASK COURT FOR RELIEF

Three petitions for divorce were filed in the court of common pleas by wives.

Ethel M. Hooper and Charles O. Hooper were married March 25, 1906, in Morgan county. They are the parents of two children—aged 12 and 10. She charges that her husband has cursed and threatened her with violence, and says she was compelled to leave home September 5.

Blanche B. Kaylor and Grover C. Kaylor were married October 22, 1908, and are the parents of three children—aged 7, 5 and 2. She alleges that throughout her married life she has been compelled to support herself and children, and even to help to keep her husband.

Myrtle Nolan and John F. Nolan were married February 13, 1907. The defendant alleges that defendant abandoned plaintiff in August, 1911, and that he has refused to contribute to her support, although he earns large wages.

DEATH VISITS HOME TWICE IN 24 HOURS

Death visited the home of Amzi Carmichael twice within 24 hours, taking his two brothers—James, aged 47, on Sunday evening and Harvey aged 47, on Monday afternoon. Both deaths were due to pneumonia. With the brother a sister, Mrs. Braden Shannon of Mary Ann township, survives.

A double funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the home, in the Rocky Fork road. Burial will be made in Rock Fork cemetery.

Our Boys and Girls

The child who gets into trouble because he does not know what to do with himself, is perhaps aware that things are not just right with him, even though he does not know just how to remedy the situation. It is distinctly the duty of the parent to discover the source of the restlessness and supply a remedy. First, one must make sure that the child is in good health and that it is provided with the opportunity to do interesting things that are worth while. Also that the child is interested in the things he is asked to do.

If children under these circumstances behave themselves acceptably we must take their conduct as a matter of course and not give them overmuch praise for what they cannot help, any more than we should blame them under the same circumstances.

We may urge them to greater exertion or we may encourage them to be more careful, but good and bad are not the quality of their every-day acts, no matter how pleasing or displeasing the consequences may be to our feelings.

Milady's Boudoir

Neck and Throat.
For a woman who is troubled with a neck and throat that are not the aids to her beauty that she wishes, I would advise the following exercises: Lie flat on your back on a couch or bed with the head hanging far over the side. Then bring the head up and over until the chin touches the chest. Repeat until tired. This will develop the muscles along the front of the throat.

Next, lie face-down with the head still hanging far over, and bring it back and forward as far as possible. Do this vigorously and to the full limit, until you can stretch the head up and back. Repeat until tired and you will develop the muscles along the back of the neck.

Again, stand erect and twist the head first to one side and then the other. Stretch as far in each direction as possible. Now take a reclining position and elevate the body so you rest on your head and heels. Rest your hand on the floor to keep your feet from the floor. Then let the body sway from side to side so that the greater part of its weight rests on the side of your neck. This will fill out the hollows in the sides of the neck.

Sit before a desk or table with the hands resting firmly in front of you. Lay the forehead on your two hands and press forward and down with your head as vigorously as possible. Now turn slightly so the right elbow is on the table. Rest the right side of the head on the right hand and press sideways and down with the head. Do the same with the left side of the head and with the hand.

Chance for Daddy.
Richard watched his mother knitting socks for some time, then he looked up at his father, who was reading nearby and asked: "Daddy, don't you wish you were a soldier?" His father replied: "Yes. Why?" and Today said: "Can you see you could get all those socks mother knits for other men."

"The race is not always to the swift," quoted the Wise Guy. "No, the quick-Kaiser lost no time in making a quick get-away," added the Simple Mug.

"I wonder if I should buy Clara a box of candy to take to the theater. Yesterday powdered hair?"

"The custom of eating candy at the theater is not just the thing," said his mother. "It would be better to buy her a bunch of violets to wear."

TRANSPORT RIDES OUT HEAVY GALE

Newark Boy Describes Terrific Storm at Sea In Which Wind Blew 90 Miles an Hour.

A storm at sea is terrifying for sailors and landmen alike, as described in a letter to Mrs. F. P. Reynard of this city, written by Carl H. Reynard, chief petty officer, commissary department on board the transport Harrisburg. He describes his visit to France on a recent trip with the transport. His letter follows:

"Our ship is about 10 or 12 hours from New York. It is now 5 o'clock in the morning. You may be sure I am glad to be so near home and I have had a most wonderful trip. One of the most recent and thrilling parts of it was a terrific storm last night. It began with a hard blow, then lightning and such wonderful lightning I have never before seen. The flashes were so frequent that it was almost like daylight on the sea. Great mountains of water could be seen piling up around us and the wonder of it is, I did not once think of the danger we were in. The captain would trust no one to steer, so he stood at the wheel himself until the storm subsided. The ship rolled first on one side and then the other, so near turning over that the side lights were extinguished. I have just talked with one of the officers from the bridge and he told me he had never seen such a storm in 12 years at sea and that it was recorded on the ships log that it was a ninety-mile an hour gale. We have had storms all the way back. The very first night out we ran into a rather hard one and I had my first real sea sickness. My body with but few exceptions was sick. Mine lasted about three days. We sailed from Brest, France, November 5th after 14 days stay there.

Brest is a very interesting place with some of the oldest buildings that are to be found anywhere in France. The chateau or castle on the cards I am sending is a very wonderful place. There is a well and a cave or dungeon that was built by the Romans 45 years before Christ. I went through another dungeon that was built during the fourth century with additions constructed centuries later that gave one an idea of the horrors of the good old days when knights were bold. We saw cells where men and women were imprisoned, tortured and killed, and they had many ingenious ways of accomplishing it. We saw the judgment room. The judge sat in a room above the cells and heard the prisoners' case through a small grating.

Another room was called the chamber of forgetfulness. The prisoner entered it by being placed on a trap door. Some loud high executioner pulled a string and the door dropped, the prisoner fell 20 or 40 feet onto some large knives. Then a trap in the side of the wall that I mentioned, opened and this flooded the room which is about 25 feet in diameter. Another trap was opened and the water and wrocker was so unfortunate as to have dropped into the forgetting chamber was hurried out into the sea.

Brest was at one time an independent country. The streets are very narrow. There is a narrow-gauge railway and the same kind of street cars. One has to flatten himself against the store windows or dodge into a doorway if he happens to be on the narrow side of the street when the car comes along. The stores are small and there are many wine shops.

The people dress very much like Americans. The poor and the children wear wooden shoes. Two whole carts are used almost entirely by the country folks and to see the women driving or leading a big horse with a load of hay or turnips or wood makes one think of pictures he has seen of peasants. I visited the big stores but did not buy. I had the good fortune to meet the nephew of the French admiral, who gave me a lesson in French each day, as I went ashore almost every day of my stay there. I liked the people I met, and enjoyed talking with the children that I met in the park where I went to have my lesson. The country is beautiful and the harbor was wonderful. November 15—Am at home and you cannot imagine how very happy we are. I wish that you might be here or that I could drop in on you at home, but I am afraid I shall have to wait till next time I come to Ohio."

GETS LETTER FROM FRENCH PROFESSOR ABOUT SOLDIER

Mrs. A. F. Henley of 186 N. Buena Vista street, has received the following letter from Monsieur Thiant, of Chambray, France, at whose home her son, Bert Henley, who is with the 32nd Inf., A. E. F., was located for two months. This letter is the second one to be received from Monsieur Thiant.

"We were very glad to receive your letter dated October 24th. Madam Thiant is very glad to hear that Miss Minnie likes the lace she sent her.

You must know that Bert has left us for he wrote to you the day before his departure. We were very grieved to see him go away for we had taken a great liking to such a nice young man, but we are very anxious about him for he left us three weeks ago and though he promised to write, we have never heard of him since. We often think and talk of him. I do not know his new address. Will you kindly let me know it.

The war is over now and everyone is happy here. It must be the same in America.

You will soon see your valiant children come home again. Many of them, alas, will remain in France forever, but their death was quite glorious.

Your kind letters will always delight us. My wife and I send our best wishes of good luck for Bert.

Kindly remember us to Miss Minnie. Respectfully,

Monsieur N. Thiant,
Professor de Demin, Boulevard de Brinon, Clamecy, Nièvre, France."

BAZAAR PROFITS SATISFACTORY

Several Hundred Dollars Added to Treasury of Patriotic League as Result of Week's Sales.

The Patriotic League Bazaar closed Saturday in a blaze of glory, thanks to the loyal support given it by Newark people. The epidemic of "flu" and a week of constant rain did not dampen the enthusiasm of the crowds. A generous donation from the Elks made fraternal night a truly memorable one for the league and Saturday night found every thing sold out except good will and appreciation. The high school orchestra played all through Saturday evening and greatly delighted the large crowd with its most tuneful program. Miss Henriette Jordan gave several classical dances, Russian and Indian. As most of the salable articles had been purchased the drawing of the various large donations then took place. The ham given by the Miller Provision Co. after being auctioned off on Friday evening to the highest bidder, Mrs. Frank Warden, was returned by her to be resold and was finally purchased by Mrs. James Fitzgibbon. Twelve chances on either the victrola or golf clubs were then raffled off and won by Mrs. Mary Dundy. Then another similar drawing took place which resulted in Gerald Smith of Hudson Ave., also drawing twelve number of chances. The $5 worth of tickets given by the Burke Golf Co. The half ton of coal given by the Dixie Coal company was drawn by Howard Upson who at once returned it to be again tried for and was finally awarded to Mrs. J. W. Brown of East Main St., who decided it was her lucky night having already won the Grand theater tickets. The final drawing for the victrola then took place and the 15th number was the one decided upon by the award. No. 367 was the lucky number and when drawn from the basket and found to contain the name of Harold Witterbloom Route 5, Newark. The tenth number was the one decided upon by Mr. Sherwin who drew the slips from the basket to decide the Golf club, the last big donation to be raffled off. No. 625 was found to be Clarence Heisey of Granite Road, who was the fortunate winner of the $50 bag and clubs given by the Burke Golf company. By every one working with zeal and enthusiasm the league has been able by its bazaar to raise several hundred dollars and most sincerely does it appreciate the cooperation of the many people who made it possible. The newspapers especially have been loyal supporters of this work and so cheerfully given space. A much more important organization just now is the league of local merchants and manufacturers who gave so bountifully of their salable articles to help the bazaar be the success it was.

The league feel indebted to Chas. Pederman and H. D. Hale for their helpful suggestions.

The meetings of the various clubs already organized will have to be discontinued temporarily owing to the epidemic of flu but will start as soon as the ban is lifted from social or club gatherings. Mrs. Penberg will be in charge of the motor brigade and will call a meeting as soon as circumstances will permit. This is regarded an especially important organization just now.

The store given by the Whelan Co. was sold for a good price and every article of the large box of glass donated by the Heisey Co. was sold. Both donations to the league a very considerable sum. Further plans of this organization will be announced soon.

ALHAMBRA

Wednesday and Thursday

Coming tomorrow to the Alhambra theatre is one of the most exciting dramas ever shown on the screen. Its title is "Murder in the Streets." A thrilling series of exploits, arising from the deadly rivalry of a brave American and a crafty German to win her hand, place the charming star in constant peril. In addition is shown a typical example of the way in which the Kaiser's agents carry on their nefarious work in America.

Friday and Saturday

As Boston Blackie, in the forthcoming Metro production "Boston Blackie's Little Pal," Bert Lytell is seen in the part of an up-to-date crook of the scholar and gentleman variety. It is a clever role and one in which Mr. Lytell has full scope for his great versatility. This play will be the attraction at the Alhambra Friday and Saturday and has a supporting cast of distinctive prominence.

GRAND

Tuesday and Wednesday

Betty Blythe's success in moving pictures has been rapid. A young woman of unusual charm and ability, she became a Vitagraph star in less than a year. She was leading woman to

BETTY BLYTHE
VITAGRAPH

Harry Morey in "A Game With Fate," and more recently in "Tangled Lives." She plays opposite him again in "The Green God," a five-reel Blue Ribbon Feature, by Frederick Arnold Kummer, which will be seen in the Grand theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"The Inn of the Blue Moon."

Doris Kenyon, who appears at the Grand theatre on Thursday and Friday in Louis Joseph Vance's delightful love story of the screen, "The Inn of the Blue Moon," is one of the youngest American film stars who have risen to undisputed success. She was a successful singer and dramatic artist before she went into the pictures. Her versatility and talent are interestingly expressed in the dual role she is called upon to assume in the photoplay.

AUDITORIUM

"For Husbands Only."

The memory for faces is much stronger than that for names. Every author visualizes his characters and usually has some definite face in mind while writing the story. The motion picture director has the same experience in reading a script for the first time.

Some few months ago, when Chas. Kenyon wrote "Painted Lips," the Western photoplay colony was combed for just the proper man to take the role of Jim Douglas. Edward Le Saint, like so many directors, had a certain face in mind for the role. Strangely enough it was the same one that Kenyon chose. It belonged to an actor that he had seen on the stage, and LeSaint wired East to a well-known theatrical agency to find out where Lewis J. Cody was. The answer came back that he was working in Los Angeles in the films. Strange as it may seem, under the name of Lew Cody, he had been working not five miles away from Universal City for the last year.

So well did Mr. Cody acquit himself in "Painted Lips," and such a deep impression did he make on all of the film critics who saw it, that Robert Leonard engaged him on the spot for "The Bride's Awakening," with Mae Murray in the title role. Cody's latest work is in the Lois Weber-Jewel Production, "For Husbands Only," which is now showing at the Auditorium.

This feature in which Mildred Harris (Mrs. Charlie Chaplin) was screened yesterday to crowds, will be shown both today and tomorrow together with another Red Cross Feature.

"America's Answer."

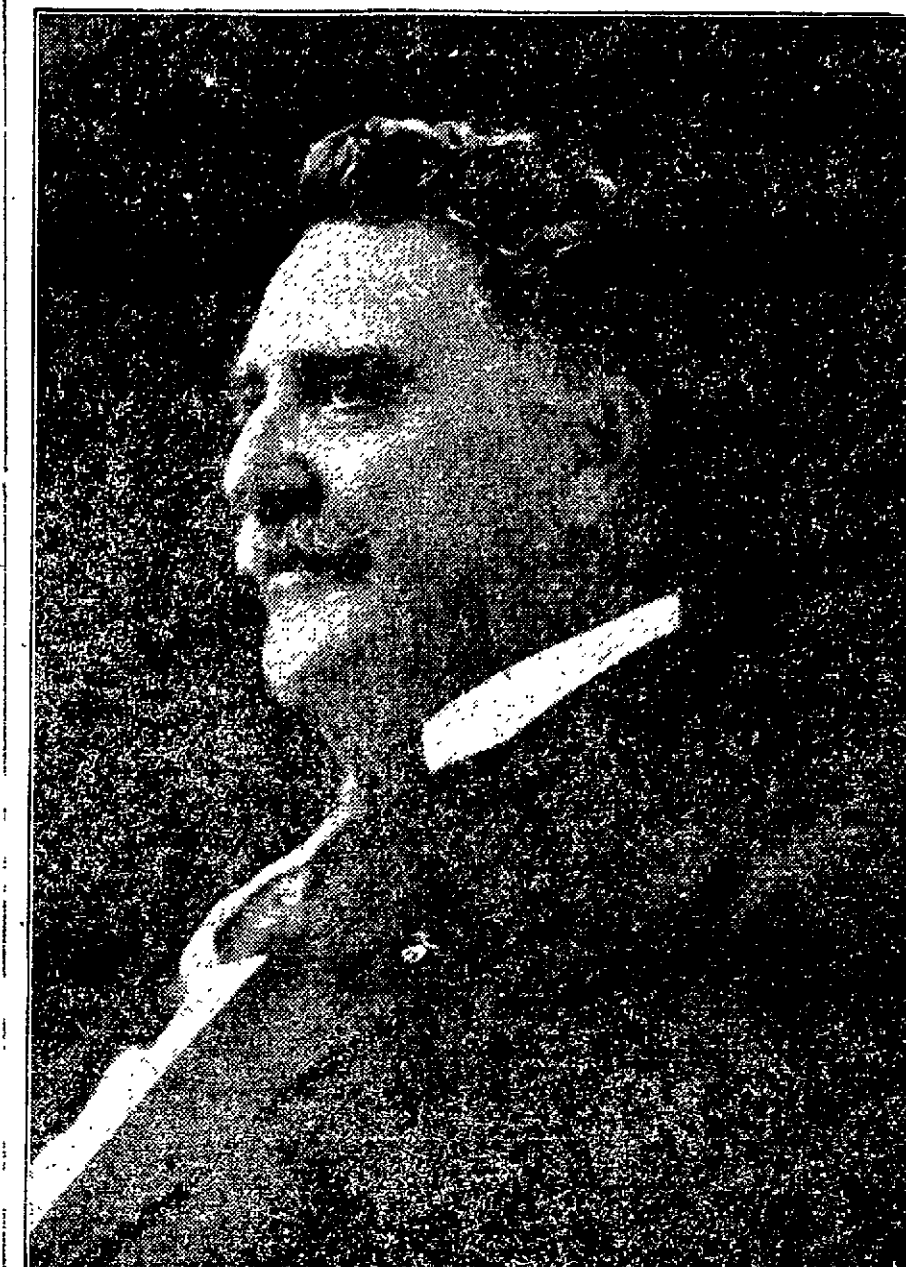

The attraction at the Auditorium Friday and Saturday will be the second United States War Picture, "America's Answer," presented by the Division of Films, Committee on Public Information, George Creel, chairman, and distributed by the World Film Corporation.

This great war picture was taken by the U. S. Signal Corps, A. B. F., by order of General John J. Pershing, under the direction of the General Staff. It shows the activities of the first half-million American soldiers in France.

Mixed Metaphors.

"Mixed Metaphors" was the title of a successful play presented years ago by an actor named Polk. It was a comedy of mixed metaphors.

Billy Beard, Lasses White, Johnny Healy, Billy Clark and others of the comedians with Al. G. Field, are introducing some mixed metaphors in their various comedy offerings. Some of these metaphors fit in nicely and are decidedly humorous, for instance: "All along de overferrin' stream ob hist'ry you can disriver de silent footprints ob de crowned heads ob Europe."

And the speech of a negro politician: "De fierce light ob de public's opinion shall dose dar footprints till hit strangles dem. Then shall dey swaller de bitter pill and drink hits very dregs."

The Al. Field's show comes to the Auditorium theatre Thursday afternoon and evening.

"Vanity Pool."

A new "sister team" has been discovered recently in Mary Mac Laren and Katherine Mac Donald. Miss Mac Laren, who is appearing in the latest Universal Special Attraction, "Vanity Pool," with five other stars of national reputation, now confesses that her real name is Mac Donald and that Katherine and she own the same dear old mother. They are Pittsburgh girls who have made names for themselves in the motion picture industry through hard work and study. Mary's latest success, "Vanity Pool," will come to the Auditorium theatre Sunday.

"Chin Chin."

"Chin Chin," whose reputation as a famous entertainment has preceded its coming by almost two years, will be seen at the Auditorium theatre on Tuesday, Dec. 24th. By the box office returns, the most potent argument in the theatre when entertainments such as this are under consideration, "Chin Chin" is the greatest and the best. Certainly the most exciting and sophisticated taste will ask for little or nothing more in facile playfulness, pretty dresses, swift dances and praiseworthy amusement than this production has to offer.

CARROLL'S

THE Year Just Closing Has Been a Very Busy One-----
-----Yet It Was a Year Filled With Serious Consideration-----

ITS MANY PROBLEMS, NATIONAL AND INDIVIDUAL, AFFECTED THE DAILY PLANS OF EVERY MAN AND WOMAN EVERYWHERE.—

SUPERFICIALLY ONE MIGHT CREDIT GOOD FORTUNE FOR THE BUSINESS DONE BY THIS STORE, BUT WE BELIEVE THAT UNDERNEATH LAY SOMETHING MORE PERMANENT THAN THE SHIFTING SANDS.

To deal fairly is one thing—to act courteously is another—to serve without severity is a third—but to do all these with intelligence, foresight and always with consideration of our customers' advantage is the fourth and greatest of them all—

Owing to unsettled conditions, constantly increasing cost of heating, lighting, rents as well as expenses in general, in conjunction with the difficulty of procuring the most desirable merchandise, without deteriorating our high standards, to sell at prices profitable to both our customers and ourselves.

We Have Decided To Quit Business April 1st, 1919

WHEN THE LEASE ON OUR PRESENT QUARTERS EXPIRES.

IN ORDER TO DISPOSE OF OUR GREAT STOCKS BEFORE THAT TIME IT IS NECESSARY FOR US TO INAUGURATE A SERIES OF

DISPOSAL SALES

BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18th

JUST ONE WEEK BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Every Garment In Our Ready-to-wear Department---Third Floor
Including Suits, Coats, Dresses, Separate Skirts, Petticoats, etc.
Will Be Offered At Remarkable Price Reductions

For months we have talked about our styles, our quality standard, our excellence of materials, and now in a single hour all of this has been changed and we will just talk PRICE. You have learned the other part of the story, especially if you have been a patron of this store. NOW PRICE will prevail as the chief magnet to draw women to this sale—but because—they will remember the high standard of the qualities, that make our service so valuable.

The qualities and pricings alone would commend these garments to discerning women—but the increasing scarcity of woollen materials makes garment buying an event of double importance just now. TURN THIS OPPORTUNITY TO YOUR ADVANTAGE—FROM THE PRESENT OUTLOOK ANOTHER SUCH AN OPPORTUNITY MAY NOT OCCUR AGAIN FOR SEASONS TO COME. An early visit to our Ready-to-Wear-Department is advised, as the assortments will be quickly depleted at these clearance prices.

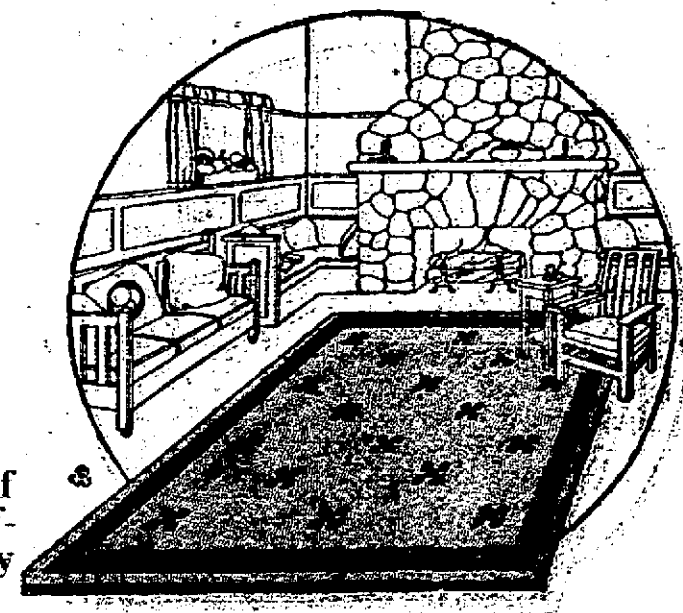

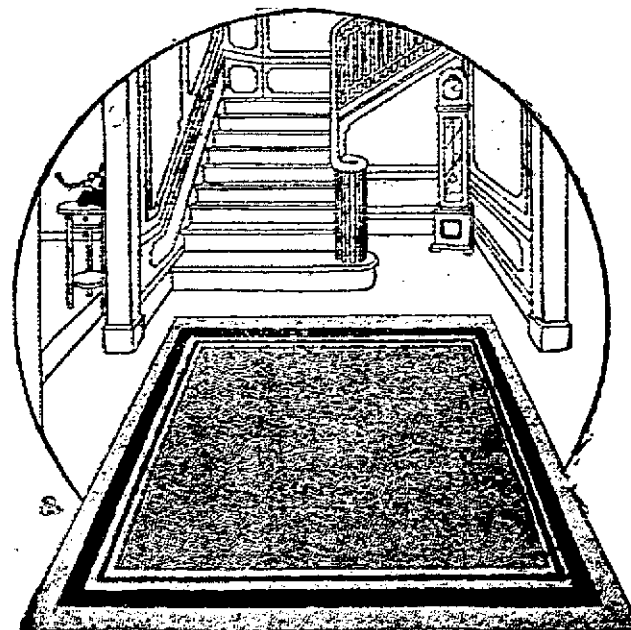

Terms of This Sale Are Strictly Cash—No Charges—No Approvals—No Lay Aways—Cash Only

AT THE SAME TIME WEDNESDAY MORNING

WE WILL PLACE ON SALE OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF

High Grade Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums
Curtains, Curtain Materials and Fixtures
At Greatly Reduced Prices

If you wish to economize for your own sake, as well as to help the general scheme of thrift, here's your golden opportunity. You will be doing a great service to your out-of-town friends to let them know of these sales, because it will pay them to come from any distance to buy here—

WHILE WE HAVE DECIDED TO DISCONTINUE THIS BUSINESS, AND WILL GIVE UP OUR PRESENT ROOM ON APRIL 1ST—WE SINCERELY HOPE AT SOME FUTURE TIME—WHEN CONDITIONS WILL PERMIT— TO RESUME OUR PLEASANT BUSINESS RELATIONS—
We believe that "The Best Is None too Good For You" and should we decide to again engage in the sale of women's apparel in Newark, THERE WILL BE NO BACKWARD STEP and you can depend upon our giving you a grander—better store than ever, and one of which any city might be proud.

SANTA CLUB WANTS NAMES OF NEEDY TOTS

The Santa Claus club is completing its plans for the visit of Santa Claus on Christmas day to the homes of the poor children of Newark. However, the homes must be those of poor children. People who know of children of destitute families where there is no possibility of Christmas being prepared any Christmas day, are asked to phone 1308. Yesterday a call came to headquarters giving the name of a child. The person asked when the distribution of toys was to be made, and when told on Christmas day, complained that it was not to be made. He wouldn't send them to day before Christmas to their homes as they were going out-of-town to spend Christmas with friends. Another one wanted gifts for a child who was already in an orphan's home, where Christmas is always prepared for the children.
The Santa Claus club has for its object, only the poor of the city, where there would be no Christmas, unless the club provided for it. If you know of a home, you are asked to call 1308 and tell about it. Every case is investigated, and if it is found the case is not a worthy one it will be checked off.

THANKS FROM POLICEMEN.
The members of the police department are appreciative of the raise in salary granted them by the city council last evening and desire to extend their thanks for the unanimous passage of the ordinance. The men have been faithful and tireless in the discharge of their duties and the salary which they have been receiving was not commensurate with the advance in prices of all commodities and the high price of living. While the raise is not as large as the men desired yet they feel that it is well merited and that they could understand the circumstances and they take this method of thanking each one individually.

There are quite a number of flu cases here.
Mrs. Scranton died suddenly Sunday morning. Funeral services were held Tuesday and were private.

COUNCIL BOOSTS

Company had never requested any priority order for rails, so that the improvement of the streets might be made. Another report stated that the American Bottle company had offered to settle for water used by that concern which the city claims was used to cool out the city knowledge, for the sum of $6,707.48, plus $312 and the costs.

The report of the public service committee asked approval of the wages paid the employees at Cedar Hill cemetery and council agreed to the same. The public safety committee reported that the safety director had sold the old hose and chemical wagon for $1400 cash, and asked council to confirm the sale.

City Engineer A. Allen reported on the plans and estimates for the construction of the drainage sewer in Hudson avenue, the entire cost of which will be $2,388.75; the city's share to be $437.35.

A petition from residents and property owners in South Central avenue asked that that thoroughfare be opened up to Columbia street. The matter was referred to the street committee.

A communication from the clerk of the board of health asked council for $150 to meet contingent expenses incurred by the "flu."

City Auditor Nelson Dodd addressed the following communication to the council: "The following items were read by Clerk Geo. H. Hamilton, regarding appropriations for the first half of 1919:

"I give below a brief statement to show the condition of the various funds that are replenished by these funds shows that a surplus should exist at the end of 1919 in the following funds as estimated:

General fund $17,301.59
Public safety fund 14,778.81
Library fund 964.67
"That there will be a deficit in the following funds as estimated:

Public safety $17,356.24
Public health fund 2,509.72
"Taking into consideration the surplus altogether there should be a surplus of $13,376.93.

"It will be observed from this statement that the surplus in the general fund will about offset the deficit in the public safety fund. One year ago, the state examiner made the statement in his report that an effort should be made on the part of the board of health to increase its revenues. I called the attention of the health officer to this statement during the past year but no action seems to have been taken by them.

"In regard to the other departments and in connection with these matters I desire to suggest that there be a closer cooperation between the various departments of the city.

"I am in receipt of a circular issued by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public officers, from which I desire to quote the following: 'The public safety fund. One year ago, the state examiner made the statement in his report that an effort should be made on the part of the board of health to increase its revenues. I called the attention of the health officer to this statement during the past year but no action seems to have been taken by them.

"We are calling attention to the words 'one year ago' in the circular. It is our duty to see that the provisions of the Smith 1 per cent tax law, and will say that under this section money cannot be borrowed from the revenue of one year to cover expenses of a preceding year. In short, you cannot borrow 1919 money for 1918 uses. Such action would defeat the very purpose of the Smith law."

"The civic committee of the Rotary club in a hearty communication to council reported that in its opinion the purchase of the plant of the Central Union Telephone company by the Newark Telephone company and the consolidation of the two plants is a matter of the public interest of all concerned, and therefore it recommended that the increase rates asked by the Newark Telephone company be granted, providing that an interchangeable system between the two plants be installed. A general ordinance covering the matter was also filed with the report. A number of similar communications from business and professional men favoring the creation and consolidation of the two plants was also read. Councilman Keyes stated that he had a similar communication signed by the civic committee of the Kiwanis club but that he had neglected to file the same.

B. Wey stated that he had purchased the McCahon art gallery and requested permission to erect a display case in front of the studio. It was referred to the law committee.

A communication was read from W. A. Alsford, secretary of the Ohio Good Roads association, regarding the securing of material, now that the war is over, for the building and all public buildings and recommended that a representative be sent to Washington with other representatives from over the state to urge immediate legislation for the improvement of the highways.

A communication was read from Administrator Wm. C. McDoo regarding expenditures of railways for public improvements in which he stated that all expenditures in excess of $500 must be approved by the head of the railway administration.

A communication from the Rotary club stated that the civic committee of the club had adopted a resolution approving the raise in rates asked by the Newark Natural Gas and Fuel company. A similar one was also received from the Kiwanis club.

The following ordinances were given their first reading, and passed under a suspension of the rules:

By Faust—Amending ordinance 2834, granting to the superintendent of streets an increase of from $80 to $100 per month.

By Faust—Fixing the salaries and members of the fire department so that the chief receive $145 per month, assistant chief $130, one captain, $120, four captains $120 per month, six drivers $115 per month, one fireman who shall act as clerk $115 per month and fifteen firemen $75 per month for the first year and $110 per month each year thereafter, two repairmen $115 per month and one hydrant man $110 per month; that one day's vacation out of five shall be granted and two weeks each year with full pay.

By Baker—Fixing the salaries and members of the police department, granting to the chief a salary of $140 per month, one captain $120, one sergeant $105 per month the first year and $110 per month each year thereafter, two drivers $110 per month and one day driver $75 per month and twelve days vacation each year with full pay.

By Faust—Fixing the salary of the clerk to the mayor at $55 for the first year, $60 for the second and $65 for the third.

By Faust—To enter into a contract for a duplicate discharge header and improvements of the city pumping station.

By Riggs—To enter into a contract for one year's supply of coal.

By Keyes—To transfer $150 from the general to the health fund.

The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That the city clerk be and he do certify that the following resolutions were passed at the meeting of the city council held on December 16, 1918:
